Agencies

Trinity County Behavioral Health (530) 623-1362

TCBH partners with the community to provide behavioral, mental health and substance abuse services to meet the prevention, intervention, treatment and recovery needs of Trinity County residents. They provide support for individuals and families who are in crisis; struggling with mental illness, substance use, or both.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) (800) 662-4357

SAMHSA's mission is to reduce the impact of substance abuse and mental illness on America's communities. SAMHSA's National Helpline provides free 24 hour information and referral assistance to local treatment

Human Response Network (HRN) (530) 623-2024

HRN is a private, community-based, nonprofit organization that serves Trinity County in Northern California with a wide array of social and educational services. Established in 1980 by women determined to provide needed resources to families in Trinity County, HRN is dedicated to protecting each person's right to live in safety with dignity. The agency grew out of a grassroots movement to provide support to women and children who were victims of domestic violence, abuse, or sexual assault. Since then, HRN has expanded its role in the community to include a variety of services for children, individuals, and families of all types and sizes.

Agencies

Trinity County Office of Education (TCOE) (530) 623-2861

It is our mission to provide meaningful services and leadership to assist school districts in meeting the current and future needs of all Trinity County students.

Far Northern Regional Center (530) 332-1529

Far Northern Regional Center will provide services and supports that allows persons with developmental disabilities to live productive lives as welcomed members of their community.

First 5 Trinity County (530) 228-7811

First 5 Trinity receives state funds that it re-invests back into the community through grant programs directed at improving the well-being of children and families. Our initiatives increase access to, and raise the quality of, valuable services in our focus areas: Early Learning and Development, Health Initiative, Family Support and Strengthening and Systems Change. We focus on evidence-based and evidence informed programs that build on the family's ability to meet their greatest needs. First 5 actively engages in partnerships and fund programs, services and activities that support optimal child development and healthy children who are prepared for school. In 2017, First 5 Trinity County distributed $230,000 in Prop. 10 revenues to programs and activities that meet local needs.

Agencies

California Coalition for Youth (CCY) (916) 514-4464

CCY is a statewide, grassroots nonprofit organization that serves disconnected youth ages 12-24 throughout the state. Our membership consists of youth, youth advocates, and youth-serving agencies. CCY is governed by a statewide Board of Directors representing youth-focused programs and organizations, youth and other individuals interested in advancing our mission. Our vision is that every youth in California is connected to the services, resources, support and programs they need to have successful lives.

Trinity County Child Welfare Services (530) 623-1314

The goal of Child Welfare Services is to keep children safe and to preserve families. To have compassion for one another, to learn from others and give back without hesitation or judgement. To offer professional skills and knowledge to all the residents of Trinity County in a manner that respects each individual as a unique person in a unique situation. To give families the tools and connections with community services they need to help them to be successful at parenting and raising their children in a safe and healthy environment. To let families know we are here to support and assist them in making the changes necessary to keep their family together.

TRINITY COUNTY COMMUNITY NAMES

This guide is assembled as a courtesy service for the Trinity Community by the Trinity County Office of Education and is not an exhaustive listing of all resources available to community members. Families are strongly encouraged to use this guide as a starting point and to continue to utilize any services available to them whether listed or not. TCOE is not responsible for the actions of any other organization listed, and families and community members should contact the organizations directly to determine eligibility for services.
